

Australia PNG Association Networking Event

Meet. Greet. Connect.

Enjoy canapes and drinks with scenic city views, and build quality contacts and relationships with other Association members, friends and guests who all have ties to PNG.

Join us for our first social networking event.

Also mingle with special invited guest Marcus Bai and hear how he rose from a grass roots rugby league player, to NRL icon who won the hearts of Papua New Guinea, Australian and UK Rugby League supporters.

Marcus Bai

Specific Project Advisor, External Affairs and Development
K92 Mining

Marcus Bai is a Papua New Guinean icon who first burst into the international rugby league spotlight in the 1990s. An international representative winger, he represented Papua New Guinea on numerous occasions and played for both Australian and English championship clubs. Since his retirement from professional sport in 2007, Marcus has remained active in agriculture and mining in PNG. His contribution to the community goes beyond his sporting achievements.
